

First Friday

Book Release Party

Friday, October 1, 2010 ■ 5 p.m. - 9 p.m.
Gardens of the Historic Preservation Trust of Lancaster County ■ 123 North Prince Street

Celebrate the release of Lancaster County Reflections by local author/photographer Scott Butcher.

Books will be for sale and the author will be available to sign copies. Signed prints of selected photos from the book will be available for purchase, with a portion of the proceeds benefitting the Historic Preservation Trust of Lancaster County.

The event will be held in conjunction with First Friday in the garden of the historic 18th century Sehner-Ellicott von Hess House – as the garden is rarely open to the public, this event offers a great opportunity to visit one of Lancaster’s picturesque “hidden” gardens.

Tickets for the Historic Preservation Trust of Lancaster County’s upcoming Architectural History Tour: Lancaster City Architecture by C. Emlen Urban, will also be for sale.

Enter a drawing for a chance to win the following:

- Signed copy of Lancaster County Reflections
- Two tickets to the upcoming tour, Lancaster City Architecture by C. Emlen Urban
- One Family Membership to the Historic Preservation Trust of Lancaster County ($50 value)

Historic Preservation
Trust
of Lancaster County

123 North Prince Street
Lancaster, PA 17603
717.291.5861
Fax: 717.291.2251
www.hptrust.org

ABOUT THE BOOK

- 128-page, full-color, hard-cover
- 8.5" x 11"
- $24.99
- Over 200 photographs
- Lancaster City
- Lancaster County including Lititz, Strasburg, Columbia, Marietta, Ephrata, and more
- Architecture, streetscapes, and landscapes
- Detailed captions with historic information, architectural style, and more

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Scott D. Butcher is a York-based author and photographer with more than ten books to his credit, including Delaware Reflections, Gettysburg Perspectives, York: America’s Historic Crossroads, York’s Historic Architecture, and Tombstone: Relive the Gunfight at the OK Corral. He is vice president of JDB Engineering, Inc. and currently serves as president of the Historic York board of directors and is also a director of the AIA Central Pennsylvania Chapter.

www.scottbutcher.com

