- Over 200 color photographs of beautiful Lancaster County and City
- Historic facts accompany each photo offering a perspective of the past connected to the present

Pennsylvania's Lancaster County. Those words conjure images of sprawling, fertile farmland, horses with buggies, and covered bridges. But Lancaster County is much more. The historic City of Lancaster is home to a large historic district and is a popular destination for the arts. Bucolic rolling hills give way to the charming towns of Columbia, Ephrata, and Marietta. Quaint Strasburg is now known as "Train Town USA" because of the Railroad Museum of Pennsylvania and the multitude of railroad-themed attractions. Lititz is recognized as one of the National Trusts for Historic Preservation's 2009 Dozen Distinctive Destinations. This book features pictures of two Lancaster Counties: the historic one with yesteryear charm, and the dynamic Lancaster one with creative appeal. More than 200 vivid photographs and informative captions make this the perfect keepsake for residents and visitors alike.

Scott D. Butcher is a writer and photographer of many books and publications. He resides in York, Pennsylvania.
