"Lancaster County Reflections"

Join author, Scott D. Butcher, as he takes you on yet another extraordinary photographic journey, this time across Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. Explore the vibrant city, picturesque towns, colorful covered bridges, sprawling farms, and the beauty of the Susquehanna River.

Atglen P.A. — Pennsylvania's Lancaster County. Those words conjure images of sprawling, fertile farmland, horses with buggies, and covered bridges. But Lancaster County is much more. The historic City of Lancaster is home to a large historic district and is a popular destination for the arts. Bucolic rolling hills give way to the charming towns of Columbia, Ephrata, and Marietta. Quaint Strasburg is now known as "Train Town USA" because of the Railroad Museum of Pennsylvania and the multitude of railroad-themed attractions. Lititz is recognized as one of the National Trusts for Historic Preservation's 2009 Dozen Distinctive Destinations. This book features pictures of two Lancaster Counties: the historic one with yesteryear charm, and the dynamic Lancaster one with creative appeal. More than 200 vivid photographs and informative captions make this the perfect keepsake for residents and visitors alike.
