

NEW BOOK: A spooky look at York

Daily Record/Sunday News

Article Last Updated: 08/29/2008 11:43:20 PM EDT

Learn about the myths, legends and ghost stories of York in "Spooky York, Pennsylvania," by Scott D. Butcher and former York resident Dinah P. Roseberry.

The book includes a walking ghost tour of York and more than 50 haunted locations throughout the county. Stories include a regular guest at the William Goodridge House, the apparition of a former manager at the Lafayette Club, a cigar-smoking spirit at the Capitol Theater, and the ghosts known as George and Martha at York Little Theater.

It is published by Schiffer books and sells for $14.99. For details, www.schifferbooks.com.

Advertisement

Print Powered By  FormatDynamics™