Local writer Scott Butcher has produced his first coffee table book, "York: America's Historic Crossroads" (Schiffer Publishing).

Butcher will give a presentation on York's historic architecture and sign books from 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Saturday at the Agricultural & Industrial Museum.

"York" includes more than 300 color photos, with chapter introductions and photo captions that showcase York's history, from its founding in 1741 to today.

It can be purchased at the Museum Shops of the York County Heritage Trust, 250 East Market St. or at Borders Books & Music in Springettsbury Township and from amazon.com.
